of a football field
comes alive

Rolls Product Sales Manager

Lancashire / Home-based - UK

Are you the new Sales enthusiast we are looking for? If yes, we offer you the opportunity to join a leading company where you get to work with experts in the field and your efforts will secure orders for roll servicing, roll covers and replacement rolls.

Get ready to put your strong interpersonal and technical skills to good use as you develop robust customer relationships so that you're first to hear about potential sales opportunities. You'll travel throughout the UK to several established customers and some new ones and you'll have the support of a strong team around you to deliver the orders you win.

When everything works together

Valmet is where the best talent from a wide variety of backgrounds comes together. With 12,000 professionals around the world, we are the leading global developer and supplier of technologies, automation and services for the pulp, paper and energy industries. Our commitment to moving our customers' performance forward requires creativity, technological innovations, service know-how – and above all, teamwork.
