

PITA Membership Benefits

The Paper Industry Technical Association (PITA) is an independent organisation which operates for the general benefit of its members – both individual and corporate – in promoting and communicating the technological aspects of paper manufacture. Formed in 1920, it has served the Industry – both manufacturers and allied trades – for over a century.

Individual Membership Benefits include:

- The following publications, which are distributed free to all PITA members:
 - » Paper Technology International[®] - a prestigious international technical journal (3 issues pa);
 - » PITA Annual Review - an invaluable source of contact information and data;
 - » PAPERmaking! - an e-magazine with business/technical focus (3 issues pa);
 - » PITA Affairs e-newsletter - containing time-sensitive information (fortnightly).
 - » Ad hoc emails on subjects including career opportunities and training courses.
- Discount of £100 for any public Training Course organised by PITA.^[1]

Corporate Membership Benefits include:

- Corporate promotional opportunities via:
 - » Features in Paper Technology International[®], PAPERmaking! and the PITA Annual Review;
 - » Free targeted exposure with Logo in the PITA Annual Review and PITA website;
 - » Promotion and links from the PITA Website, via emails and in our directories;
 - » Advanced notification of publicity opportunities that may arise at PITA meetings;
 - » Free single page of advertorial per year in PTI[®] for allied trade companies;^[2]
 - » Priority publication of allied trade press releases relating to new products and services:
 - * In full on the PITA website; in PITA Affairs; and in PAPERmaking!; and
 - * In edited format in the nearest edition of Paper Technology International[®].
- Preferential discounted rates:
 - » Discount of £100 per person for any public Training Course organised by PITA.^[1]
 - » Complimentary Student Membership for any trainees;^[3]
 - » On Exhibition Spaces at PITA events and meetings.

All individuals covered by PITA Corporate Membership receive copies of Paper Technology International[®], the PITA Annual Review, PAPERmaking! and PITA Affairs; these reach over 1,000 members and 10,000 contacts within the UK, European and Global Paper & Forest Products Sector.

^[1] Excludes private in-house courses which are already heavily subsidised by PITA. For any one course, the maximum number of discounted places per Corporate Member must not exceed the number of people covered by the Corporate Membership agreement with that company.

^[2] Maximum of 12 pages of free advertorial per issue. Offer subject to space, publication schedule constraints, and agreement of content.

^[3] Students must be under the age of 30 and participating in recognised training relevant to the Paper and / or Fibrous Forest Products Sectors.